

FRIDAY, AUGUST 1, 2008

Palau agent Western Pacific Shipping Co. represented by Kuniwo Nakamura donated in behalf of Kyowa Shipping Company basketballs and t-shirts to Maris Stella, Belau Modekngi School and SDA School. The donation was a token of appreciation and friendship with the people of Palau for their kind cooperation in their shipping services as stated in the letter of Kyowa Shipping Company president Hiromitsu Takamatsu in his letter to Belau Modekngi School principal Bedbii Chokai.

CONTRIBUTED PHOTO

Kyowa Shipping donates balls, t-shirts to 3 schools

BY PETER ERICK L. MAGBANUA
Reporter

Kyowa Shipping Company Wednesday donated eight basketballs and 14 t-shirts to three schools in a simple ceremony held at the Longshoremen Restaurant in Malakal.

Among the schools to receive the donation were Maris Stella, Belau Modekngi School and the Seventh Day Adventist School. Maris Stella was represented by its principal Felix Okabe, Dave Ngrakesau, teacher from BMS and Nelson Sisior for SDA.

Donating in behalf of Kyowa Shipping Company is its Palau agent Western Pacific Shipping Co. represented by Kuniwo Nakamura.

Kyowa Shipping Company has been giving assistance to Palau for the last 40 years and this year they have identified private schools as recipients of the donations.

The representative of the schools said that they are happy for the donations and the help extended to them and promised to take care of the donations and use it for the benefit of the students when classes start.